Adjuster Licensing Information

- ◆ Montana does require adjusters to be licensed, with some exceptions. Enclosed you will find an application form and the relevant statutes. The application form may be photocopied if additional copies are necessary. The exceptions are cited in the statutes under 33-17-102(1), MCA.
- ◆ Licensing fee for original license, $50.00
- ◆ Licenses are renewed biennially based on the birth month/year of the licensee.
- ◆ Biennial renewal fee, $100.00
- ◆ Successful completion of a pre-licensing examination is required.
- ◆ There is a 24 hour biennial continuing education requirement for adjusters.
- ◆ Insurance companies may contract with whichever independent adjusters they desire, the Department does not regulate these contractual relationships.
- ◆ There is no notification sent to insurance companies regarding adjuster license renewals, revocations, or the like. We issue the licenses on an individual basis.
